The ancient Penobscot, or Parawanasek.

(In Collections of the Maine historical society. Bath, 1876. 32^{pp}. (1st ser. v. 7, p. 11-22, 118-120).
 The writer concludes that the ancient Penobscot or Parawanasek was a locality on the Penobscot River, extending up from the falls just above Bangor, having this belief on the strong attachment felt by the Indians for this region, which was not transferred to the whites till 1796.
